Edwin,

After much consideration, we have decided to discontinue your distributor relationship with Hammonds Technical Services, Inc., effective April 1, 2008. Please use the remaining days to wrap up projects on which you may currently be working.

It is our concerted opinion that, you are currently adding little to our sales effort. Additionally, it has become apparent that our customers, in your area, appear to prefer to work with us directly and that your addition to this effort has become essentially, an email or Fax forwarding office.

Please address any concerns or questions you may have on the subject to us at our Houston Plant.

Thank you for the time you have spent with us over the past years.

Sincerely,

Ken Polk
